Sensation in Lampenhain: Hired and Fired within Seconds!!!

May 8th, 2017

Yesterday Kelley Mickwee, Colin Brooks and John Chipman played a fantastic concert in Lampenhain which is well-known as the musical capitol of Germany comparable to what Memphis, Tennessee and Austin, Texas are in the US. During the show a very young lady called Renate Gönnawein entered the stage, took Colin's guitar and rocked the house. The band was all excited about Renate's performance and they hired her as a lead guitarist for the rest of the tour. BUT: seconds later Renate dropped Colin's guitar and she was fired at once. This dramatic event will make history as the shortest career of a Rock 'n' Roll star.
